Good-bye to All This

One of the greatest thrills of our twelve years in school came on the spring day when we moved into our beautiful new high school building. However, we will always hold vivid memories of our days in the old high school. We leave behind the crowded classrooms and corridors, not being able to remember a time when we didn't have two or three to a locker. We also leave behind, with regret, our Junior High friends and teachers with whom we have shared so many experiences.

Having said good-bye to all this, we welcome our new school with deep gratitude to those who made it possible and appreciation for the beauty and convenience it offers.

IN MEMORIAM

As we began our Senior year, we were saddened by the absence of Mr. W. F. Hauger, who passed away July 20, 1957.

Mr. Hauger was a teacher in Bryan High School for thirty-one years, during which time he taught journalism, English, and literature. He was an advisor to Mask and Sandal for twenty-one years, and he directed all the Senior class plays during the time he was here. He was the originator of Hi-Life, which won many awards for excellence.

We dedicate our book to his memory, mindful of the words of Oliver Wendell Holmes which he taught to so many of us:

Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!

Scenes We Leave Behind—I

Like all of the other teachers, Miss Max and Mr. Wagner check at the office regularly for mail and messages.

Administration

Enrollment Increases

School Heads Plan Expansion

The new Bryan High School was the major concern of Superintendent Howard Rogge and the Bryan Board of Education for the past year. Since the actual construction began last summer, the group held many extra meetings.

Mr. Rogge is active in several professional organizations including the State Department of Education Transportations Committee, the State Music Education Association, and the Public Relations of the Ohio Education Association. He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Bowling Green and Ohio Northern and his Master of Arts in School Administration from Ohio State.

Mrs. Kenneth Rychener, Mr. Rogge's secretary, was a Bryan High School graduate of 1944.

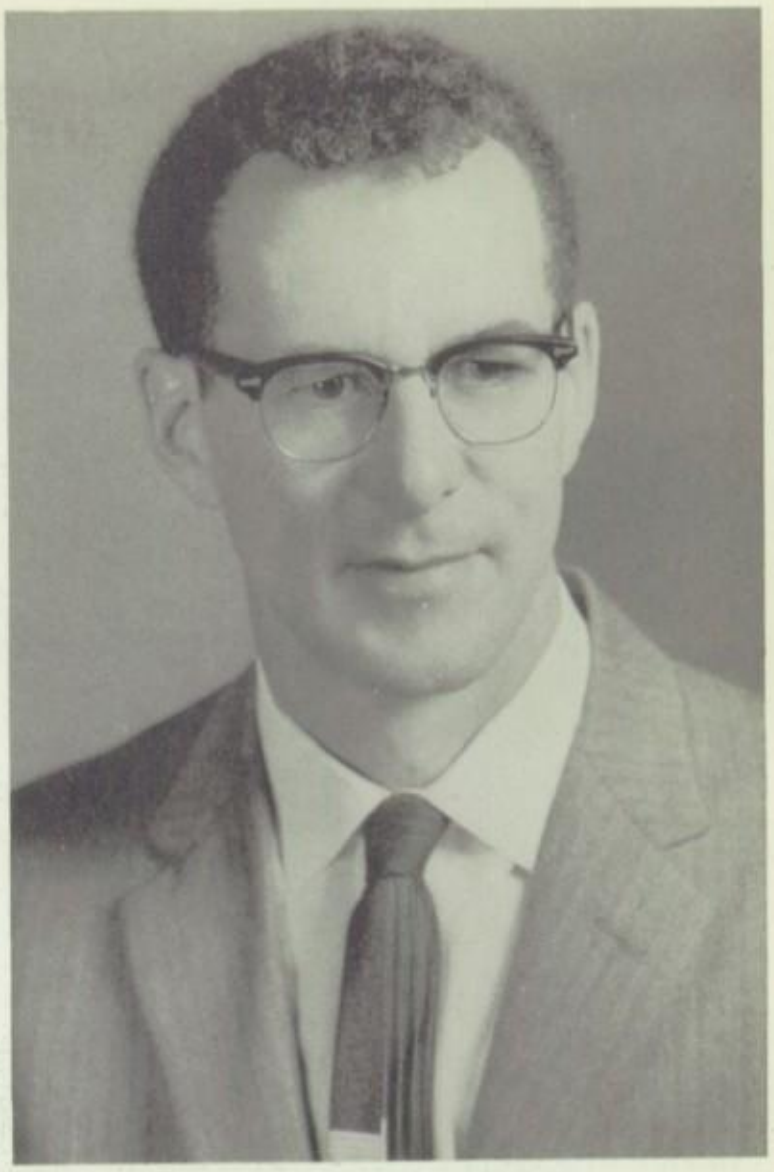
H. S. Office Moves

Junior High Has New Principal

Mr. Newell spent his third year as principal at Bryan High School planning and arranging for the move from the old building to the new school. By this rearrangement, the pupils under his supervision were reduced to the upper four grades only, comprising about 580 students. Mr. Newell enthusiastically supported and attended all of our extra-curricular activities and in addition gave us counseling on personal and vocational problems. He acted as advisor to the Student Council and served as president of the Northwestern Ohio Athletic Association.

A graduate of Kalamazoo College, Mr. Newell earned his Master's degree at the University of Michigan. Besides his enjoyment of sports, a special interest of his is collecting old books.



JOSEPH S. NEWELL

HAROLD A. MEESE
B.S., M.A.

Mr. Meese, previously elementary supervisor, inherited the quarters vacated by the high school and acquired the additional title of Junior High Principal, having charge of the upper elementary and Junior High pupils in the old high school building.

Mrs. Diane Kuhn, Mr. Newell's secretary, was first to occupy the attractive office in our new building. She was a member of Bryan's class of 1955.

Teachers Inspired by Our Modern School

After several years of teaching under increasingly difficult conditions as space became more and more limited, Bryan teachers took a great deal of pleasure in helping to plan our beautiful new high school. Probably the highlight of the year was February 21 when the trek to new quarters began and everyone reveled in the roominess and convenience they provided.

Miss BARSTOW, a graduate of Bowling Green State University, teaches seventh and eighth grade science. She also is assistant sponsor of Student Council.

Mrs. BROOK teaches typing, personal typing, junior business, and shorthand. She graduated from New York State College for Teachers. She acts as bookkeeper for the Central Fund.

Mr. CAYTON is our bookkeeping, office practice, business arithmetic, business English, business law, and retail selling teacher. He graduated from Bowling Green State University and is Director of the Bryan branch of B.G.S.U. Mr. Cayton is treasurer of the Central Fund and sponsor of the Senior class and the National Honor Society.

LUNCHTIME for Mr. Webster's white rat.

Women in White Care for Our Health

In preparing a meal for her huge "family," Mrs. Grace Carr, head of the cafeterias, plans delightfully varied menus. Annual sandwich week, festive holiday spreads, and the Senior luncheon are occasions to be long remembered.

Mrs. Beulah McGlenen and Mrs. Lucy Struble, head cooks at Washington and Lincoln schools, have nine adult assistants and employ many student helpers through rush hours.

For the first time the cafeteria staff served the Junior-Senior banquet, using the facilities of the new high school.

For eight years Mrs. Helen Settles, the Bryan City nurse, has been our friend and counselor. She was trained at Western Pennsylvania Hospital and divides her time among the schools and necessary home calls. This year a Dental Clinic was on the agenda for all students in grades three to nine.

Mrs. SETTLES takes a look as Marilynn McDaniel says "Ahhh."

Stout-Hearted Men Serve Where Needed

A clean and well-kept school is the successful achievement of our fine custodians. They are the first on the job in the morning and the last to lock up at night. There seems to be no repair job that these men can't handle. They make our school a more cheerful place to learn and study.

Patience and understanding of children along with skill in driving are the qualities of our bus drivers. This year capacity loads added greatly to their responsibilities. In addition to the regular runs to and from school, three chauffeurs drive extra trips for the band and other organizations.

THEY KNOW THE SCORE. Custodians Tom Guise, Ralph Perry, and Clarence Davis check out the score board as Delber Long runs the switch.

NO TICKETS NEEDED for these buses driven by Wilmer Sehartzer, Victor Roebuck, Don Krill, Guy Eager, Lester Short, Maynard Daft, Willis McKarns, Glen Cameron, and John Williamson.

Scenes We Leave Behind — II

Although our new school has the convenience of a locker for each student, we will never forget the traditional Senior "cubbyhole." Seniors, Jan Black, Sally Stuller, Chuck Friley, and Lowell Showalter, prepare for class.

Scenes We Leave Behind—III

Student Life

Memo to Seniors . . .

Classes became more important than ever as you neared graduation day. You looked ahead to jobs or to further education. You practiced the art of better speaking in speech class and learned about the psychology of advertising when you visited the Product and Samples show. Perhaps your work in Vocational Ag resulted in a blue ribbon at the fair; and remember how you looked forward to each new issue of Time magazine in civics class? Vocabulary building was a serious business in English. Your physics and math classes were tough but you realized that they were important background for your future education. Guidance sessions on choosing vocations or selecting a college were interesting and helpful.

. . . and Juniors . . .

Vocational and technical subjects challenged your minds and rewarded your efforts as you rounded out your major subjects and elected your minors. You learned practical skills in welding and other industrial arts courses.

Chemistry was difficult, but lab was always interesting and fun. Biology was full of field trips, animals and dissections. You did your typing to music, and in American history class you learned a great deal about people and places and events of the past.

Reminder to Sophomores . . .

Your day from 8:40 to 3:30 was full of broadening horizons. You learned the language of the Spanish-speaking nations; you took World History and ranged from Sputnik to Buckingham Palace; you found a strange world of animal life in the biology room; geometry gave you insight on lines and angles. In English you bought Teen-age-Book Club bargains, and took a long look backward as you read "Silas Marner."

. . . and to Freshmen

Books, blackboards, and bulletin boards occupied you as you began your climb toward your diploma. In general science you did experiments and took field trips to gain practical knowledge. In English you studied grammar and read exciting adventure and mystery stories. Art class proved interesting with modern designs and varied materials. In phys. ed. you practiced good sportsmanship and had a lot of fun playing indoor softball with a scoopball. You learned to cook and sew and began specializing in vocational or pre-college work.

Your Middle Years . . .

Half way through school, you were still working on the fundamentals of arithmetic, reading, grammar, spelling, science, and history. You spent three periods a day with language arts and social studies in seventh grade core, and continued them in separate classes in the eighth grade. Shop, art, music, and physical education gave you new interests and activities.

Summer into Fall

We were not idle during the summer. In June, Bryan was represented at Girls' State by Dianne Murray, Nancy Stark, and Norma Schweitzer, and at Boys' State by David Cayton and John White. Members of the Hi-Life staff traveled to Ohio U. at Athens for the Journalism Workshop. Fourteen yearbook staff members spent three days in Chicago at the N.S.P.A. convention. Fall football practice began August 20, and the band made their second trip to the Ohio State Fair.

HI-LIFE

Scenes We Leave Behind—III

In our beautiful new building Hi-Life was as fascinating as ever, but we remember that for years we bought it in the main hall outside Room 206, just as Larry Raymond purchases his from Diane Brace.

Zeta Cordia Reflects Student Life

Yearbook Staff Publishes Volume 45

Starting their year with a trip to Chicago to the N.S.P.A. convention, the Annual Staff then settled down to regular Thursday night meetings at Mrs. Robrock's home. This year they had a deadline on the fifteenth of every month from September through March and spent many weekends with last-minute work. Along with the work they enjoyed the snacks always on hand, and the antics of the Robrock zoo.

The business staff, with Mr. Johnson as advisor, was kept busy with tax stamps, pencil sales, coat check at the basketball games, subscriptions, and patrons. A new project this year was the Christmas semi-formal dance with "White Christmas" as the theme. The profit from these helped to pay for our 152 page annual, which was available this year for the first time with the buyer's name stamped in gold on the cover.

Another innovation this year was the admission of yearbook staff members to the honorary journalism society, Quill and Scroll. Becky Rogge, David Cayton, Larry Raymond, Jenny Hester, and Wayne Long qualified for membership by carrying major responsibility for the publication of the journal.

The 1957 Zeta Cordia received a First Class Honor Rating from N.S.P.A., giving this year's staff a high goal to match.

The name, "Zeta Cordia," is rich in Bryan tradition, being derived from the names of the two literary societies which published the first yearbook in 1913.

Seven hundred copies of the 1958 book were printed; six hundred were bound in padded covers and one hundred in paper. The price to students was three dollars and seventy-five cents, or four dollars for a personalized copy.

Headlines and Deadlines

Hi-Life Keeps Student Body Alert

With Mary Vannorsdall heading the 1957-1958 Hi-Life staff, B.H.S. students eagerly bought their school paper. Special features included issues of Roto, a literary contest, and a special dedication issue on the new school.

Mrs. Rollins was the new advisor, continuing the work Mr. Hauger had done so much to advance. Mike O'Neil was in charge of business, keeping the price per copy at fifteen cents. Assistant editors were Mary Fisher, Alma Bly, Larry Salsbury, Larry Jackson, and Jim Ginther.

Staff members attended the summer workshop at Ohio University and the fall conference at Ohio State. Many earned membership in Quill and Scroll.

Hi-Life was entered in the N.S.P.A. critical news service and the Bowling Green State University contest, where the 1956-57 Hi-Life received a superior rating. It was printed by the Leader-Enterprise in Montpelier.

For a bright spot in any day at B.H.S., nothing was better than a new Hi-Life!

B. H. S. Has Active Student Council

Representatives Exemplify School Spirit

The Student Council met every Friday after school, with Mr. Newell and Miss Barstow as advisors to the five seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, two freshmen, and two junior-high members.

The Council sponsored money-making projects to finance assemblies, scholarship tests, Homecoming festivities and Christmas celebrations. Among these were the kick-off dance, assembly donations, noon candy sales, and the popcorn concession at the basketball games.

Council members were guides on the first day of school at an Open House. They selected assembly programs, and scheduled record hops. They sponsored locker clean-ups, sold U.S. Savings Stamps, decorated for Homecoming, trimmed the big Christmas tree in the main hall, and planned the Christmas assembly. The Council had its lighter moments at a Christmas party and a picnic at the end of the year.

The honorary members, delegates to Boys' and Girls' State, were David Cayton, Bob Perkins, Larry Salsbury, John White, Dianne Murray, Norma Schweitzer, and Nancy Stark.

Honor Society Promotes Leadership

Members Rate High in Scholarship Test

Students having a "B" average in scholarship for five semesters are included, on application, in Bryan's National Honor Society. Miss Max, Mr. Cayton, and Mr. Newell are advisors of the organization.

A list of new members was not available in time for publication. Members who were not present when the picture was taken were Jan Black, Alma Lou Bly, Dan Brown, Denny Burns, Jerry Gilreath, Linda Hitt, Linda Kerr, Shirley McBride, Linda Moore, Judy Noonan, Shirley Paxton, Louis Ruder, Sally Stuller, Mary Vannorsdall, and Lindy White.

Y-Teens Have Serious Goals

Large Group Is Divided Into Squads

Worship and fellowship united the 130 Y-Teen girls under the guidance of Miss Max and Mrs. Thomas. The membership was subdivided to help the girls become better acquainted with each other.

Mary Bartle was Bryan's delegate to Y-Teen camp and Dianne Murray attended the U. N. study tour. Mrs. Black spoke at Induction Service at the Brethren Church, while later in the year Mrs. Pushee discussed ceramics.

Having won the annual hunt for the first time in several years, Y-Teens enjoyed the pay-off supper furnished by the Hi-Y boys in February. Other highlights of the year were the World Fellowship banquet and the Mother-Daughter banquet at which the Claire Newcomer pin was awarded.

Y-Teens was financially aided by the Bryan Community Chest.

Bryan Hi-Y Leads State

Junior "YM" Finds Much to Do

Boasting 90 members, Bryan had the largest Hi-Y in Ohio. They stressed devotions at their meetings, and held an impressive induction service in the M. E. church.

Losing the hunt to the Y-Teens, the boys furnished the pay-off supper and joined the girls in a Christmas party. They went swimming at the Fort Wayne "Y," and disposed of 700 Christmas trees as a community service.

Advisers Mr. Moore and Mr. Masten, with several boys, attended a district meeting in Findlay. Jim Ginther and three others were delegates to the Model Legislature.

The Hi-Y treasury was aided by Community Chest funds, the sale of salt-water taffy, and a car wash.

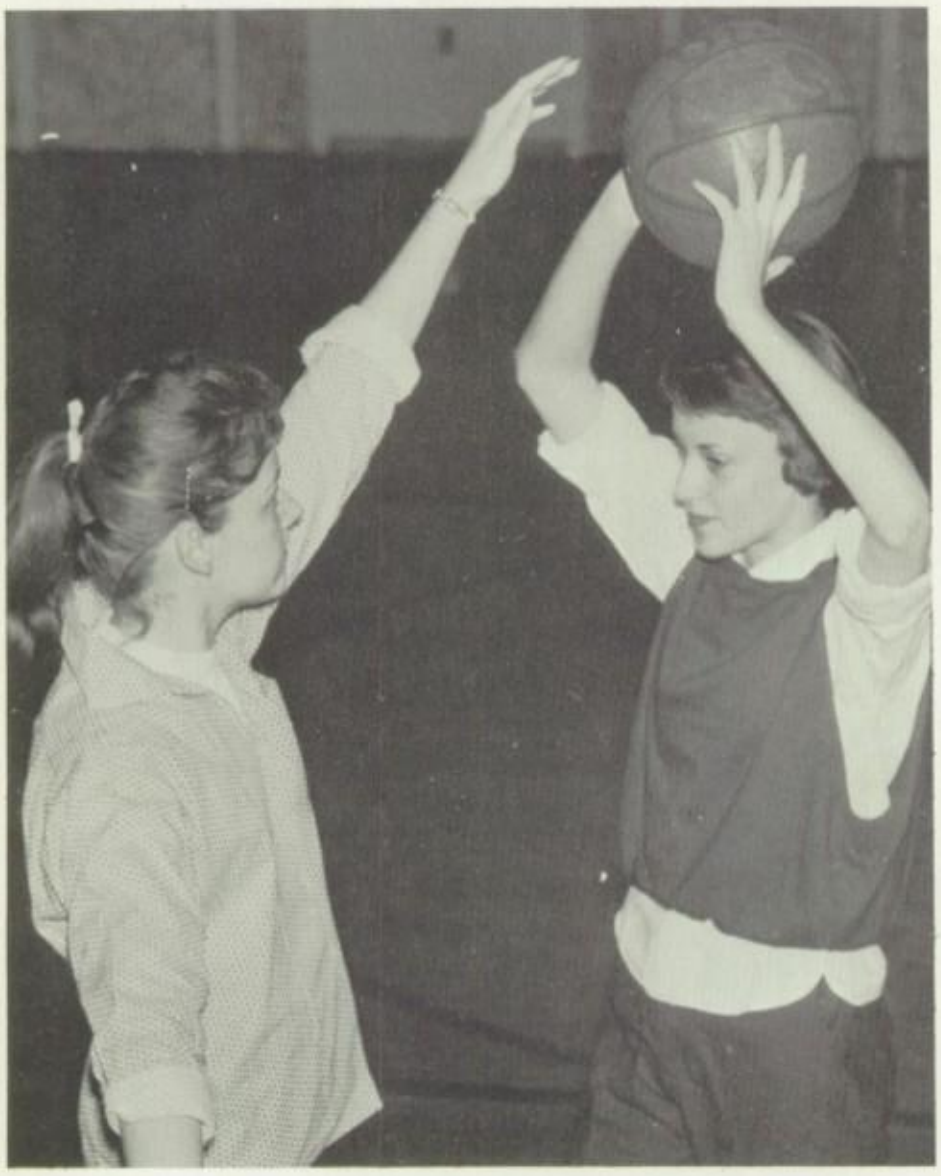
G. A. A. Provides Lively Sports Program

Health and Happiness Are the Rewards of the Game



From fall until spring, the girls in G.A.A. participated in softball, volleyball, basketball, bowling, badminton, and archery, earning 25 points for each sport. Acquiring 75 points qualified the girls to attend the banquet held May 25th. The dance theme, Sayonara, lent an oriental touch to the evening.

Initiation antics with the new members in pigtails and freckles afforded entertainment for the entire school.

Under the supervision of Miss Maneval, their advisor, the girls held a bakesale and record hop in February to raise money for the dance.

G.A.A. Honor Girl was Mary Vannorsdall and the Maid of Honor was Linda Smith.

Varsity "B" Honors Lettermen

Athletes' Club Finances Awards

Sponsored by Coaches Ebersole, Martinelli, and Sumpter, Varsity "B" members distinguished themselves by donating more than thirty man-hours to the development of the Community Recreation Park.

The energetic lettermen financed their projects by selling programs and "B" cushions at football and basketball games. At their monthly meetings they planned ways to aid in supporting spring sports and to add to the school's athletic equipment.

Varsity "B" is primarily interested in encouraging boys to take part in athletics and in promoting good sportsmanship within the school and with other schools.

For relaxation the boys played volleyball or basketball after meetings. One of the highlights of the year was viewing the film of last year's basketball State Finals.

Mask and Sandal Produces Problem Play

Thespians Plan to Go to Purdue

With "Dino" as their major production November 22-23, Mask and Sandal scheduled a variety of activities. "The Case of the Silent Caroler," directed by Margy Winzeler was in demand for Christmas programs, and an all-sophomore cast, directed by Jan Newell, produced "Junior Prom." Other projects were pantomimes, a make-up contest, initiation of Thespians, skits, a play for the Bowling Green Festival April 11, and the awarding of oscars and Best Thespian pins.

F. H. A. Is Active in State

Girls Work On Degrees and Contest

PRESIDENT Margaret Geiselman serves with a smile at Open House.

Initiating thirty new members, Bryan's F.H.A. made notable advances. Three girls worked toward the State Homemaker degree, already held by Margaret Geiselman and Sharon Cooley. Sharon was a delegate and choir member at the state convention. Mrs. Jack Shockley was the new advisor, and Mrs. Marie Sauders and Mrs. Amber Short were chapter mothers.

The girls entertained the county meeting in March, and twenty-seven entered the Betty Crocker contest. Locally they served the F.F.A. banquet, sponsored a dance and chili supper, made pom poms, served Open House, and went Christmas caroling.

Useful Projects Make Meaningful Activities

FFA's twenty-three ambitious members sold seeds, washed cars, collected scrap, exterminated pests, and took part in the Public Speaking and Parliamentary Procedure contests. At the Parent-Son banquet in November, they crowned Kay Boynton queen, presenting her with a white FFA jacket.

Elwood Gorom, Nelson May, Donald Louys, and Calvin Kaiser went to the national convention in Kansas City. Eighteen members with their advisor, Mr. Ben Saunders, and four fathers, visited the Ford Motor Company in Detroit. Several also attended the state convention and livestock judging contest at Ohio State University in Columbus.

Spanish and Latin a la Club

Foreign foods, songs, Christmas celebrations, initiation antics and costumes made gaiety the keynote for both Spanish and Latin Clubs.

Meeting on the second Tuesday of each month with Miss Royer as the new advisor, Spanish Club members were required to maintain a B average. The club made a pinata for Christmas, ate tacos, wore Spanish costumes, and enjoyed Spanish moveis and music.

Latin Club met on the third Monday of each month with Miss Max as advisor. New members acquired the "Roman look" for initiation. Latin carols, films on ancient Italy, discussion of Roman myths, and Latin Bingo made meetings interesting. The climax of the year was the Roman banquet in the spring.

F. T. A. Fosters Interest in Teaching

Bryan Does Its Part to Combat Teacher Shortage

The Blanche Mattox Chapter of F.T.A. was larger than ever this year with 132 members. They started with a wiener roast at Mrs. Robrock's home. At a later meeting, Mr. Saunders spoke on Vocational Agriculture to them and at other meetings they enjoyed good educational movies. A book, "Why Teach?" was purchased for the members to read. This book, edited by Louise Sharp, is a collection of tributes to teachers by 120 famous people.

Supervised by Mr. Webster and Mr. Johnson, the Bryan club had charge of the district F.T.A. meeting in Toledo when the Northwest Ohio Education Association met in October. At their annual Christmas party in Washington School, they had a comical gift exchange. A schedule of elementary classroom visitation was especially valuable.

A point system was adopted to stimulate good attendance. The members received a point for each meeting they attended and were given two extra points for perfect attendance. Other points were given for helping teachers with classroom work.

Students Adept at Desk and Darkroom

Books and pictures—these were the concern of the student librarians and photographers who unselfishly spent hours of unapplauded effort to serve their fellow students.

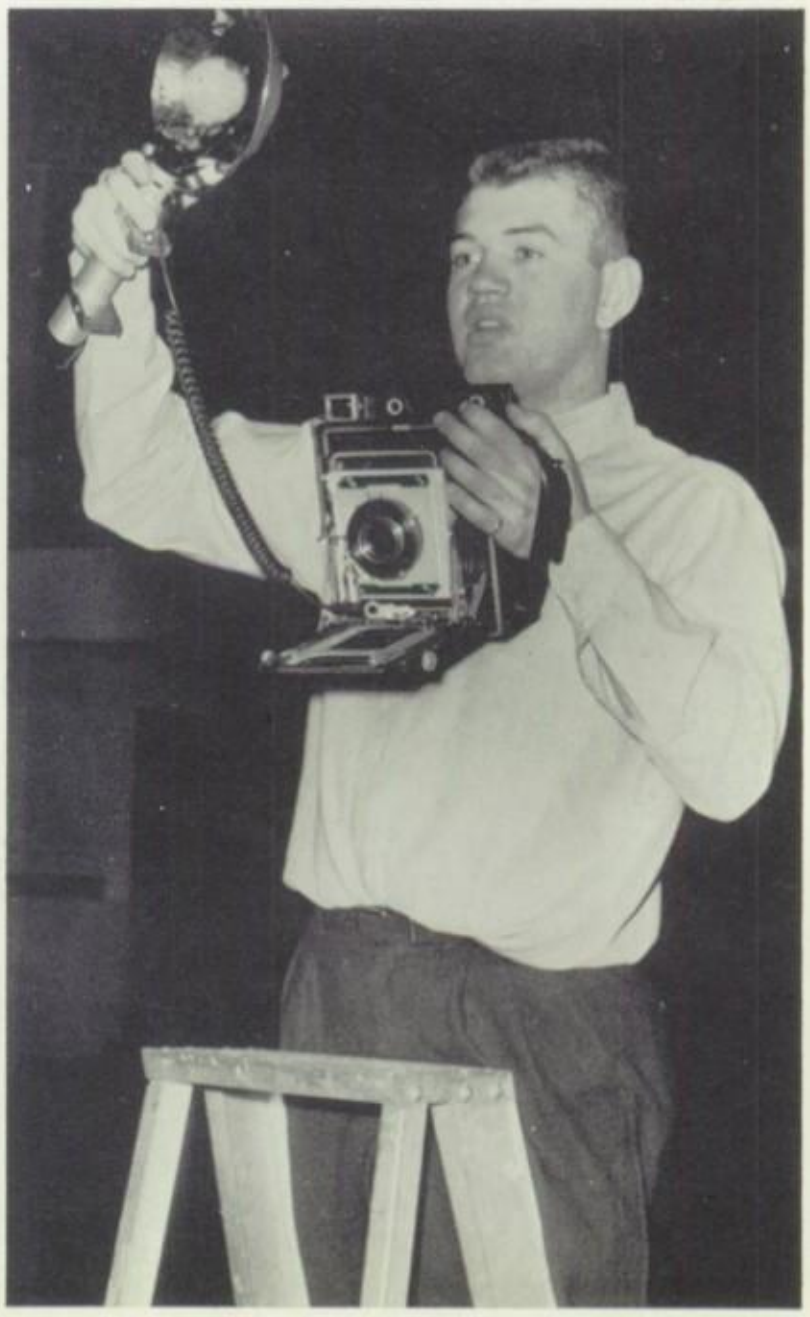
LIBRARIANS

The student librarians assisted in handling the library-study-hall attendance before the move to the new building, signed out thousands of books, and helped with the numerous chores involved in taking care of our 8,000-volume library.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Headed by Seniors Gary Nicholls and Dick Grime, the photographers provided Zeta Cordia, Hi-Life, and occasionally the Bryan Times with a pictorial record of the year, spending hours in the dark room and following all student activities with the school's press camera.

Both groups were under the direction of Mrs. Robrock.



LOOKY HERE! Ted Campbell, class of 1957, turns "pro" and comes back to take our group pictures. Ted was the winner of several Eastman awards during his high school days.

That's what little GAA girls are made of, especially their Honor Girl, Mary Lee Vannorsdall (left) and their Maid of Honor, Linda Smith (right). From a group of eight girls who were eligible according to stringent requirements of scholarship and all-round participation in school activities, Mary Lee won the acclaim of her fellow GAA members by her lively wit and infectious friendliness. Wearing the orchid and the pearls presented her by Mr. Rogge at the banquet, she reigned over festivities at the dance, accompanied by Linda, the recipient of the roses, whose capable administration as GAA president earned her the members' appreciation.

A Band Adds Pep to Celebrations

Musicians Have Strenuous Year-Round Schedule

"And now presenting the Bryan High School marching band under the direction of Mr. John Hartman!" Stadium crowds thrilled to these words as the half-time band show began at the nine football games and Mr. Dally served as announcer. Completing his fifteenth year with us, Mr. Hartman kept the band hard at work during seventh period practices to give its audiences snappy drill and dance routines, plus occasional comedy, such as the Minstrel Show act.

Bryan's parade list included Toledo's Labor Day celebration, the Van Wert Peony Festival, the Wauseon Homecoming, and a trip to Bob-Lo Island. Locally the band stepped out for the Fireman's Convention, the Bryan Jubilee, the Recreation Park opening, and the Halloween, Christmas, and Memorial Day parades. They went to the State Fair for the second time, and made their usual fine showing at the Williams County Fair.

The concert band gave five performances, plus competing in the district contest at Napoleon, taking part in the Panorama of Music, and playing for student assemblies in Stryker and Wauseon. Musicians received their award pins in November at the annual Band Party.

Round and Round

Senior Linda Wiley acted as Drum Majorette for the second year, leading the band in street parades and football shows. Our octette of twirlers were showy, with catchy routines and trim uniforms.

SMILING TRIO: Vondaile Shankster, Linda Wiley, and Jan Black.

Dance Band Is Unique

Bandsmen Vie for Chairs

Tension faded after games when the dance orchestra, the only one of its size in this area, took their places in the corner of the gym. Favorite numbers were "When the Saints Go Marching In" and Wally's "Sing, Sing, Sing," though the music library included 150 titles. Graduation robbed the group of eleven Seniors.

Director John Hartman led the band at High School dances, Junior High parties, Rotary Club, the three-act plays, and the Regional Orchestra banquet and dance.

The B Band, boasting approximately 90 members, was composed of 6th, 7th, and 8th graders, plus a few High School students. Mr. Hartman stressed competition in the sections. They presented a concert and marched in the Memorial Day parade.

Senior A Cappella Produces Fine Music

Singers Gain Large Rehearsal Room in New High School

Much of the vocal talent among our Juniors and Seniors was included in the Senior A Cappella, its members being chosen on the basis of ability and interest.

This year the choir sang for the Community Thanksgiving service, the Christmas concert, Rotary Club, and the Panorama of Music. Many A Cappella members sang in the community choir presentation of the "Seven Last Words" on Good Friday. Mr. Dally took the choir to the District Band and Chorus auditions in Napoleon, while several soloists and ensembles attended the District and State Music Auditions held in the new music department building at B.G.S.U.

The new school provided special rooms for vocal activities which helped their 6th period practices a great deal.

Seniors received their awards early in the year while the Juniors received theirs in the spring.

Bryan Plays Host to Regional Orchestra

Musicians Travel to Bowling Green, Toledo, Columbus

Performing at Toledo U. for the NWOEA meeting in October, the orchestra began its busiest year. Twenty-one players participated in the District Orchestra at B.G., nineteen were in the Regional Orchestra, and five went on to State Orchestra.

Local appearances included the Christmas concert and assembly, the Panorama of Music, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

A highlight of the year was the two-day Regional Orchestra meet in Bryan. Twenty-five area schools were represented in the 107-piece orchestra. Guests spent a gala evening at a banquet and dance in Washington School.

LARGEST REPRESENTATION TO STATE ORCHESTRA was Bryan's five: David Acus, Judy Comden, Dick Shaffer, Ayleen Hilt, and Dick Rupp.

Young Musicians Prepare for Future

Junior Chorus and Orchestra Gain Practical Experience

Junior Orchestra included 6th, 7th, and 8th graders who were eligible after one year of class lessons. Being the largest group thus far, they helped in the recruitment of other beginners. In March they presented a joint concert with the B Band.

JUNIOR CHORUS

Composed of Freshmen and Sophomores, this year's Junior Choruses were divided into two sections of seventy members each. In spite of the difficulty in scheduling such a large number, each group had an even distribution of voices.

The activities of the choruses, directed by Mr. Dally, were mainly for improvement in reading skill, repertoire building, and vocal development. Approximately sixty songs passed through their folders. They placed little emphasis on performance; however, the groups sang two selections at the Christmas concert and at the Panorama of Music in May.

Scenes We Leave Behind—VI

Although our old gym was far too small for the crowds that came to our basketball games, there was always a thrill when the cheerleaders flashed into action and the rafters rang...

The last Varsity Cheerleaders to work in the old gym were Joann Garwood, (front), Saundy Ringer and Gwen Jones, (second row), and Janie Hartley and Alma Bly.

Bryan Bears Post 7-2 Mark

Best Since 1940

The Golden Bear Gridders turned in their finest season in the last 17 years. Although the squad was light, the boys showed the qualities which make for greatness. The co-operation and hard work at practice contributed greatly to success of the team.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP: Weaver fired the passes which pulled the team out of some tight spots. Perkins was the man who saw that the ball was snapped on the signal and with Weaver was co-captain. Salsbury could pull out of the line with the best of them, while White helped out with some hard blocks. Stecovich was feared for his bone-crushing tackles. A fine blocking end, Ginther, teamed up with a hard hitting tackle, Showalter, to form a mean set of inside linebackers. Slow proved his versatility by learning to play several positions, on offense and defense. Friley was outstanding as a defensive halfback. Although these players were important, next year will find 13 lettermen returning who also played an important role in the success of the season.

HIGHLIGHTS ... The come-from-behind victory at Delta ... Sweet revenge against Wauseon ... After trailing 13-0 at the half, the Bear win at Defiance ... The time records set by our captains at Homecoming ceremonies ... The outstanding morale of the team was terrific as they came back from a defeat at the hands of Napoleon to beat Liberty and give arch-rival Montpelier a whomping!

"Everybody Holler"

The 1957-58 varsity and reserve cheerleading squads under the direction of Coach Maneval, have added to the enthusiasm of our games. The varsity cheerleaders led yells at all the football games, braving the cold and mud, and were assisted at the basketball games by the reserve cheerleaders. Joann Garwood, who served as head cheerleader, and Alma Bly, were the senior members of the squad. Gwen Jones and Saundy Ringer, who are juniors, and Janie Hartley, a sophomore, will look forward to trying out again next year.

The cheerleaders made posters throughout the year and decorated an old car to ride in for the Homecoming game which added to the excitement. The reserve cheerleaders, Mary Jo Mason, Sue Foglesong, Diane Sprow, Delores Clark and Polly Brownwell, who are all members of the sophomore class, helped out at the Homecoming game.

Golden Bears Register 16-2 Season Record

Top League with 6-0 Mark

Coach Ebersole gave to the Bryan fans a basketball team which will be remembered for its high speed offense. In League competition, this year's quintet averaged twenty points more than their opponents. Co-captains Lonnie Frank and Ron Miller led the team throughout the season with Frank as the playmaker and Miller handling the rebounding. Two juniors, Dave Roebuck and Dick Burns, contributed most of the scoring punch. Duane Brown was the spark plug for the defense. For reserve strength Coach called on two sophomores, Daniel Young and John Mignery. Seniors Wayne Long and John White helped keep the regulars hustling.

DRIVING AND FAKING, Frank goes around his man.

Although Coach Ray Sumpter's Reserves had good height and a fast breaking team, they only managed to break even for the season. However, the team, composed mostly of sophomores, gained the much-needed experience required for Coach Ebersole's Varsity.

1957 Bears Top League and District

The 1957 edition of Bryan baseball was one of the most successful in recent years. The team won 10 games while losing 3 for a percentage of .762. The Sumpterites won their third successive Sectional championship, second successive District championship, and were undefeated as League champions for the second time in the last three years.

The high point of the season came on April 30 in the Sectional Tournament at Defiance. Bryan defeated Van Wert 3-0 as fireball Bob Hamet pitched a perfect game—the first in Bryan High history.

The reserve team had a 2-1 record, defeating West Unity and Defiance while losing to Ridgeville.

Bryan Cindermen Have Winning Ways

Bears Undefeated Against All Comers

The 1957 track squad gave Bryan a season to be remembered for many years. The team won all five of their dual meets with little difficulty. They were crowned League Champs at Napoleon, winning an easy victory. On May 15 the thinclads played host for night relays, the first time Bryan has attempted such an event. They showed little sympathy for their guests, as they won five of the six trophies, losing only the shuttle-hurdle relay.

Two Jims, Brannan and Martin, combined for three records. "Red" Brannan tied the League record and set a school record by running the 120-yard low hurdles in 14 seconds. Big Jim Martin set a new school and League record in the shot put with a toss of 48 feet 5/8 inches. At the District Meet, Jim set a school mark in the discus with a heave of 133 feet 3 inches.

The underclass teams showed promise. The Freshmen were undefeated in two meets, overcoming Wauseon twice. The Reserves had only one meet, but it was a dandy. In a triangular tiff with Paulding and Hicksville, they emerged victorious, edging Paulding by only one point.

The Junior High won two meets, dumping Wauseon twice. However, they lost one meet to Napoleon and finished second to the Naps in the League meet.

Bryan High had good reason to be proud of their golf team. They won 5 matches and lost only 1. On May 17 the squad traveled to Swanton to compete in the District tournament. In a field of 12, they placed third, with a score of 358. The team provided their best showing on their last outing, winning the Montpelier Invitational with a score of 527. Also competing were Bowling Green, Napoleon, Swanton, Defiance, Montpelier, and Archbold. Mark Phillips was medalist with a score of 78.

A LAST LOOK. Gleaming in the winter sunlight, the new Bryan High School lies waiting for future generations.

This Was the Year

This Was the Year...

This was "IGY," the International Geophysical Year, July 1, 1957 to Dec. 31, 1958. It was a turbulent year, blazing with sun spots, comets' tails, and Northern Lights. In Bryan on July 4, a small, savage tornado ripped the clock from the court house and roofs from store buildings...And on October 4 Russia launched Sputnik I, the first Earth satellite, followed shortly by Sputnik II, or Mutnik, carrying the dog Laika to her death. On February 1, the U.S. satellite "Explorer" took to the stratosphere.

In Bryan it was the year of the bricklayer. The new high school, St. Patrick's Church, and a wing on the hospital were completed, and the armory was begun. All all-out effort to develop the Recreation Park landed Bryan in the top 22 "Cities of America" and made an impressive entry in the Community Achievement contest. B.G.S.U. opened a branch in Bryan. Congressman Clevenger retired, and John Hartman became a candidate in the May primary. Death claimed Bryan business men Carson Connin, Charles Hutchison, and Harry and Walter Gardner; and on February 28 Joe DeLong, B.H.S. junior, died suddenly of a heart ailment.

Headlines featured integration riots in Little Rock, Billy Graham's Madison Square Garden evangelistic campaign, and an official visit from England's charming Queen Elizabeth II. The controversy of the year centered around American educational methods versus European ones.

Sportswise, the Brooklyn Dodgers moved to Los Angeles, and Lew Burdette hurled the Milwaukee Braves to a 4—3 World Series victory over the Yankees. Ohio State defeated Oregon in the Rose Bowl.

Pat Boone captured hearts with "April Love." Jimmy Rogers was a hit with "Honeycomb" and "Kisses Sweeter than Wine." The Eberle brothers "sent" the rock-and-roll fans with "Wake Up, Little Susie." "The Ten Commandments" came to Bryan, and Bryanites went elsewhere to see "Around the World in Eighty Days." TV favorites were the Nelsons, Alfred Hitchcock, Gunsmoke, Steve Allen, Garry Moore, and Perry Mason.

Small foreign cars became more numerous, and last year's fins were receding. Dress fashions took on a 1920 look and the "sack" led the Easter parade with shorter skirts and lowered waistline.

And back of the facade of spring gaiety, April 1958 found fear lurking. Unemployment, the cold war, the cost of living, juvenile delinquency-all were problems that refused to go away.

To the graduates of the year there was unlimited challenge and opportunity to learn more and to live up to their fullest capacities.
